EFFICIENCY AUTO EXPRESSED IN NASH

"Maximum efficiency is the predominant feature of all Nash cars," says Manager L. W. Andrews of the Andrews-Nash Motor company, "and it is no exaggeration to say that it is not exceeded by any other car on the market in this particular. It is often said that 'talk is cheap,' but this is not hot air propaganda for the car in looks and action proves the assertion. The Nash will bear inspection from the most exacting auto fancier and the most careful inspection is invited. It is a pleasure to show this car and demonstrate its qualities."

"The factory at Kenosha, Wisconsin, is a very large plant, covering about 100 acres, 31 acres of which are under roof, and it is one of the best equipped plants in America. In this huge plant are employed more than 3,000 skilled mechanics, many of them coming direct from the machine shops of England a number of years ago. This means efficiency in workmanship which is reflected in the cars that the company turns out. The keynote of action in the big plant is perfect mechanism and precise finishing work. Every part of the Nash car has to be top-notch accomplishment, no part of the car being inferior to any other part, which gives symmetry, perfect poise and accurate operation to the machine. It cannot be other than an ideal machine when it comes out of the shop. The factory carrying out the will of the company is responsible for the popularity and success of the Nash car."

"From the unusual power of its perfected valve-in-head motor to the beauty and comfort of its graceful, roomy body the Nash expresses high quality in every detail. The quality of the car is governed absolutely by the Nash idea of building, as the car is made 95 per cent complete in the company's own factory. Many savings in the cost of manufacturing are made which has much to do with the selling price of the car. It is said by the manufacturers that the cost in the making of any and all parts of the machine has been reduced to the min-

"It is a matter of sincere regret to me that I cannot be present to add my tribute of friendship and admiration for Walter Hines Page," said President Wilson's cablegram. "He crowned a life of active usefulness by rendering his country a service of unusual distinction and deserves to be held in the affectionate memory of his fellow countrymen. In a time of exceeding difficulty he acquitted himself with discretion, unwavering fidelity and admirable intelligence."

Actual Theatrical Events Are De Mille Film Productions

That a new Cecil B. DeMille production is one of the things the near future holds is always pleasing news to those who care for the best in photoplay art, for it is a recognized fact that the pictures made by this master director are actual theatrical events. Mr. DeMille's latest creation, "For Better, For Worse," will be shown at the Alhambra theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

For those who are familiar with the work of Mr. DeMille, no further statement is necessary than that a picture is directed by him personally, for this knowledge is an assurance that the theme, the story, the acting and the production will all be more than excellent. Those who saw his last production, "Don't Change Your Husband," are still talking about it, and no one can forget his older pictures, such as "The Squaw Man," or "Old Wives for New." "We Can't Have Everything," "Till I Come Back to You" and "The Whispering Chorus."

Edgar Selwyn, a well known playwright, wrote the original story. He intended to produce it as a stage play next season in New York, but Mr. DeMille purchased the rights to it, for it was exactly the sort of thing he was looking for—timely, dramatic, vivid in characterization and genuinely human.

A cast of the usual DeMille experience has been selected to portray the various roles. Leading is Elliott Dexter, and others are Gloria Swanson, Tom Forman, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Raymond Hatton and Sylvia Ashton.

BERLIN HEALTH BUREAU GIVES ITS REPORT

BERLIN, April 25. (By the Associated Press)—The imperial health ministry has issued a memorandum on the results of the blockade. It says that from 1915 to 1918 as a result of under-nourishment 763,000 persons died in Germany and 150,000 others died from influenza owing to the loss of their power of resistance.

The fall in the number of births during the war exceeded four million for Prussia. The memorandum calculates at 56,300,000 marks the damage inflicted by the hunger blockade, in which it includes such curious items as unborn people and the loss of wages due to reduced working capacity.

PHYSICALLY FIT AT ANY AGE

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit. Do not wait until the most over-worked organs in the human body. When they break down under the strain and the deadly uric acid accumulates and crystallizes look out. These sharp crystals tear and scratch the delicate urinary channels causing excruciating pain and set up irritations which may cause premature degeneration and often do turn into deadly Bright's Disease.

One of the first warnings of sluggish kidney action is pain or stiffness in the small of the back, loss of appetite, indigestion or rheumatism. Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble go after the cause at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL, Haslem Oil Capsules, imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They will give almost immediate relief. If for any cause they should not, your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

Dorothy Dalton's Gowns in Her New Picture Are Rich

A small army of designers and dressmakers was employed at the Thomas H. Ince studios to make gowns for Dorothy Dalton, who interprets the part of a New York social aspirant in the Paramount picture, "Extravagance," which will be presented at the Alhambra theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

The story, which was written by John Lynch, tells of a woman who reveals in sham and pretense and with her little private fortune tucked snugly away, wrecks her husband by the gratification of her vanity. Little does she realize the consequences that attend financial ruin, little does she think of the awful abyss to which leads the lust for gold until a terrible dream awakens her.

Then the better woman asserts herself. She runs to her husband with great resolution only to find that he already has gone down in the crash of a Wall Street panic. There, before the gaze of speculators, she makes the supreme sacrifice—she endures the abuse of her husband, his open proclamation that she is the woman who has taken all and given nothing, even to his threats of blows. When he returns to his home that night, a ruined man, she greets him, not with rebuke, but with loving arms. Her own fortune is at his command, not for Wall Street to gamble, but to take her into some new country to start a new life of sincerity and plain clothes.

As may be surmised the picture is filled with beautiful and spectacular scenes, as well as gowns for women to rave about. It was directed by Victor Schertzinger. The support is excellent, the leading man being Charles Clary.

Leader of Gang of Robbers Taken By Denver Police

DENVER, April 25.—Lewis B. Harris, arrested by the police at the public library today, is believed by Denver police to be leader of a gang of robbers who some time ago robbed the First National bank of Artesia, Cal., of $10,000. Several thousand dollars in Liberty bond coupons, jewelry and postage stamps and $2,849 cash, which the police found in his apartments, is said to have contained evidence tending to implicate him in the Artesia robbery.

Harris' wife and mother-in-law also are being detained by the police. Harris is said to have operated also under the name of Edward Samuels and the police say he admitted escaping from jail at Baltimore, Md. Among his possessions were found about $600 in postage stamps, $2500 worth of jewelry, coupons from fifty Liberty bonds and $2,849 cash. He is being held awaiting information from Artesia.

CLEAN UPHOLSTERY WITH A BRUSH
The depressions in studded upholstery catch all sorts of dust, crumbs and other particles which cannot be removed with an ordinary brush, because it is too wide to enter the depressions. Neglect of these centers of dust collection soon results in slovenly-looking upholstery. It is worth while to buy a three-quarter-inch paint brush with bristles shaped to a point. Such a brush as this will easily clean out the dirt around the studs.
